Published Maps

Select “My Maps” on the top left-hand side of the screen:

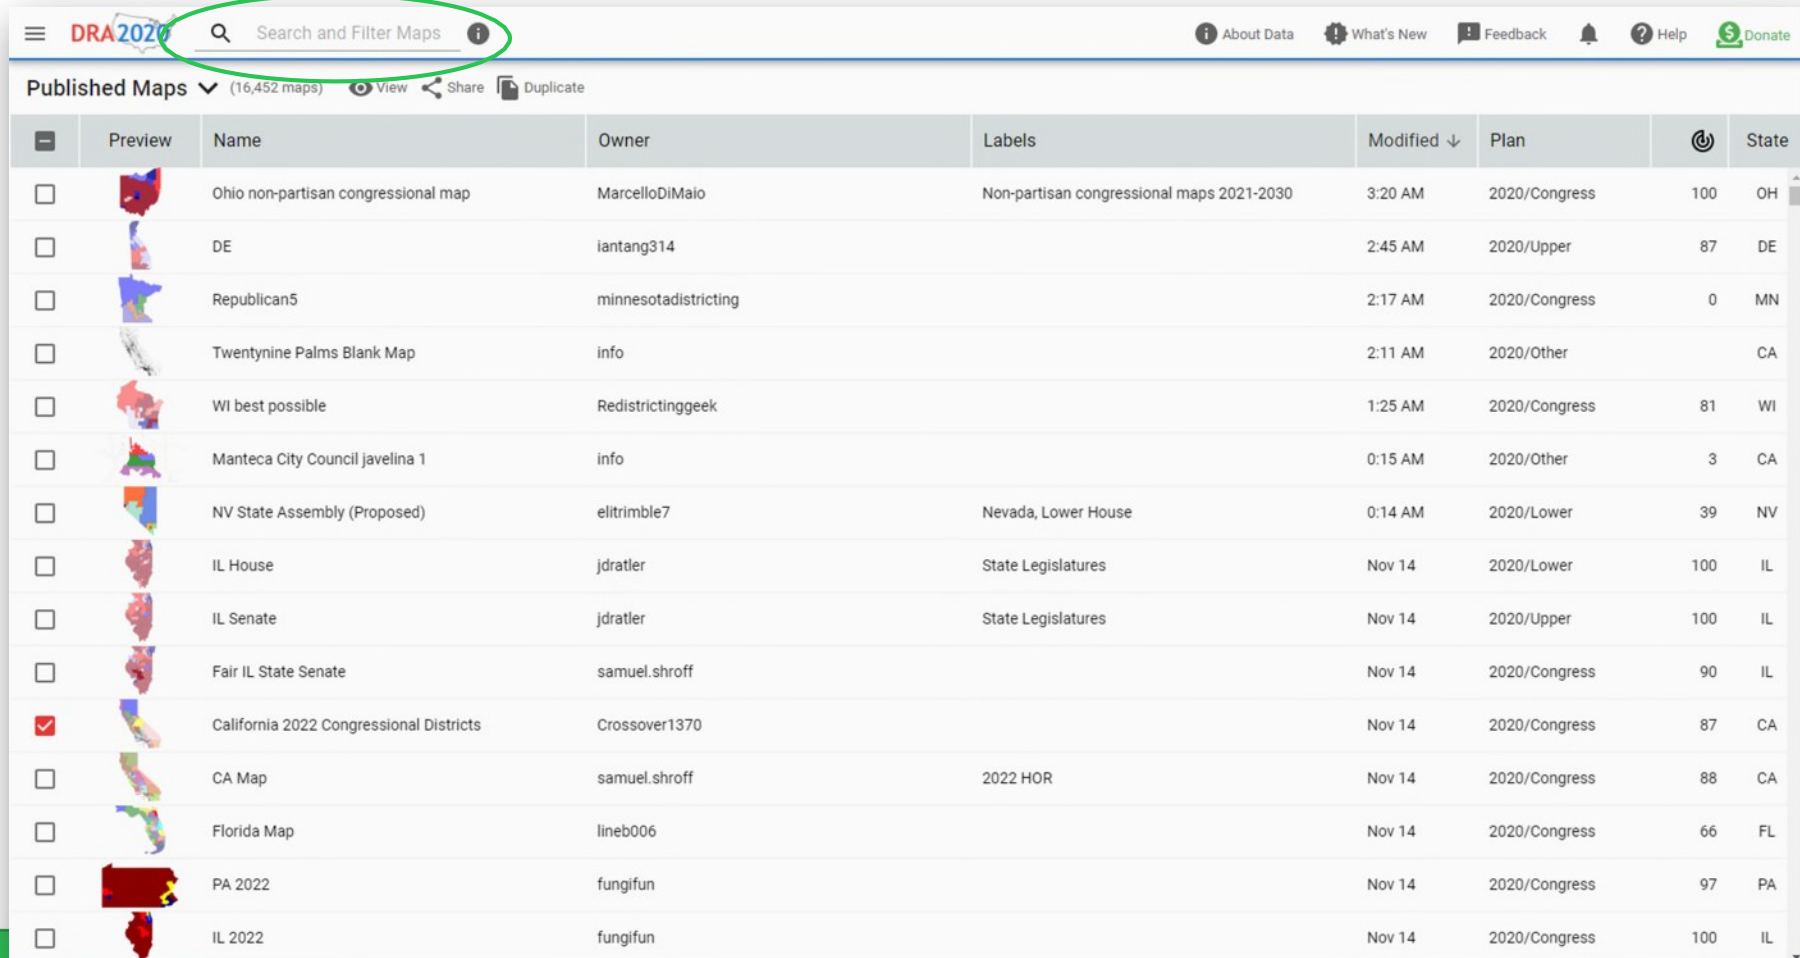

A screenshot of a dropdown menu with the text "My Maps" followed by a downward-pointing chevron symbol.

Next, select “Published Maps” from the options pane:

Map Search

Using the search box, enter your jurisdiction's name + template (Stanton template) to find the base map created for you. You can also enter just your jurisdiction's name to find any related published maps. These maps can be used as a good starting point.

The screenshot shows the DRA2020 website interface. At the top left, there is a menu icon and the text "DRA2020". To the right is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search and Filter Maps" and an information icon. The search bar is circled in green. Below the search bar, there are navigation links: "Published Maps" (with a dropdown arrow and "(16,452 maps)"), "View", "Share", and "Duplicate".

The main content is a table of published maps. The table has the following columns: Preview, Name, Owner, Labels, Modified, Plan, a license icon, and State. The "California 2022 Congressional Districts" map is selected, indicated by a red checkmark in the Preview column.

The screenshot shows the ArcGIS Online search results page. The search bar at the top left contains the text "eastvale - template" and is circled in green. The search results table below shows one result: "Eastvale - Template" by "stephanie.smith", modified on "6:49 AM" in "2020/Other". A blue callout box is overlaid on the page with the text: "For example. See this search for Eastvale, California below."

Preview	Name	Owner	Labels	Modified ↓	Plan

Duplicate Map

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Preview	Name	Owner	Labels	Modified ↓	Plan		State
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>		Eastvale 1	stephanie.smith		Nov 12	2020/Other	0	CA

Click on the checkbox next to the map that you would like to use, which will select it, and click “duplicate” to make a copy. This will allow you to make modifications.

PLEASE NOTE: The program can take approximately 15 to 30 seconds to load the duplicate map under “My Maps”

Rename Map

Now that you have duplicated your map, you will need to rename it. Make sure the duplicate map is selected (check mark), select “Rename”, on the toolbar, insert a new name and add a description for your new map. Tip: Put your name in the renamed map title, i.e. Bob’s map, etc.

To begin modifying your new draft map, click “Edit” from the toolbar.

PLEASE NOTE: that the program can take approximately 15 to 30 seconds to load the map once you have selected “Edit”

Edit Map

The screenshot displays the DRA2020 software interface for editing a map. The main window is titled "Copy of Eastvale - Template". The interface includes a top navigation bar with icons for home, chat, share, and help. Below the navigation bar is a toolbar with icons for location, hand, pan, and zoom. The main map area shows a red outline of the Eastvale district with a grid of precinct lines. On the left side, there is a "District Selector" table and a "Colors" panel. The "Colors" panel has an "Overlays" section with a green circle around the "Background Map" checkbox. A blue callout box points to this checkbox with the text: "Next, click on the background map in the Overlay box. This is located in the lower left corner and will allow you to view streets." On the right side, there is a "Precinct Details" table and a "Map Settings" dialog box. The "Map Settings" dialog box has a red circle around the "APPLY" button. A yellow callout box points to the gear icon in the top right corner with the text: "First, click on the gear icon to reapply the Agency settings to your map. Then select Apply".

Click on the Census Block(s) you would like included in the selected District. The color of the census block will change to the District being edited. A running total of the population in the District being edited is shown in the District Selector Box.

Repeat these steps until all areas of the map have been assigned to a District.

Editing Tips

- The target population for each district is 9,517. Deviation of 5% to 10% may be considered.
- To see what the population within a Census Block is before assigning it to a District, hover the cursor over the Census Block. Population and demographic statistics for the Census Block will appear in the “Block Details” box.
- To change the District a Census Block has been assigned to, use the paint brush tool to select the District in the District Selector box you want to change the Census Block to and then click on the Census Block you want to change. You may also select “Un” (Unassigned) in the District Selector box and click on a Census Block to leave it unassigned.

Tips for Quality Maps

- Districts are compact (uniform shapes, recognizable shapes, not elongated or thinly sliced across the jurisdiction)
- Districts are contiguous (share a common border).
- Districts are relatively equal in population, with a deviation no greater than 10% from the least populated to the greatest populated district. For example, if the ideal district should contain 1000 people, you could have one district that contains 950 people (5% under the ideal) and one district that contains 1050 people (5% over the ideal), with the other districts falling somewhere in between. The total deviation would be an acceptable 10%. You can check your percentages by clicking on “statistics” on the right-hand side of the tool bar.
- Districts keep neighborhoods and other communities of interest, like territories around schools, around landmarks, etc., together

Finalize Map

Finalize Map

The screenshot shows the DRA2020 web interface. At the top, there is a search bar labeled "Search and Filter Maps" and a navigation menu with options like "About Data", "What's New", "Feedback", "Help", and "Donate". Below the search bar, there is a "My Maps" section with a dropdown arrow and "(1 map)". A table lists the maps, with columns for "Preview", "Name", "Labels", "Modified", "Plan", and "State". The first map is "Eastvale Redistricting Map 1". A green circle highlights the checkbox in the "Preview" column, and a blue callout box points to it with the text: "Select the map you want to publish by clicking the checkbox next to the map." The "Modified" column shows "6:44 AM", the "Plan" column shows "0 2020/Other", and the "State" column shows "CA".

Another way to share your map with your jurisdiction is by publishing it for anyone to see and then letting them know.

Publish Map

Once selected, click the publish icon located in the top ribbon.

Once published, you must send an email to your jurisdiction with your map name to inform them that you have published a map. This is very important, otherwise they will not know that you have published a map.

Publish Map

Your published maps are visible to all DRA 2020 users. A good name and description will help other people find your map and understand how and why you built it.

Map Name
Eastvale Redistricting Map 1

Description

Including your Twitter handle in your profile will allow other users who are interested in your maps to follow your tweets and have conversations about the maps you are publishing.

CANCEL PUBLISH

This is your last opportunity to update the name of description of your map before it is made public. There is also an option to include a Twitter handle. Including your Twitter handle in your profile will allow other users who are interested in your maps to follow your tweets and have conversations about the maps you are publishing.

Share a Map

The screenshot displays the DRA2020 software interface for "Eastvale Redistricting Map 1". The map shows several colored districts: District 1 (blue), District 2 (green), District 3 (purple), District 4 (red), and District 5 (orange). The interface includes a "District Selector" on the left with a table of district statistics, a "Colors" panel with checkboxes for "Map Colors", "Partisan Lean", "Demographics", and "Overlays", and a "Precinct Details" panel on the right. The "Share" icon (a square with a right-pointing arrow) is circled in green in the top right corner of the software window.
